She has also released 7 music videos for multiple songs from her albums ranging from 2012-2022. She has also released a docudrama/short film entitled "Left For Dead" 2010 based on her near death experience with the network CBN 700 Club.

She has been so blessed to go on many tours with her music all around the world as well as perform live on TV radio and film. She has had the opportunity to sing and speak as an inspirational speaker in high schools, churches, concerts, nightclubs, community centers, banquets live television, radio interviews, conferences, and many special event invitations as a musical guest.

Sharon has toured performing as well as doing charity work for parts of the world including the UK, Romania, India, Philippines, China, Thailand, Israel, Italy, France, Germany, Switzerland, Greece, Turkey, Spain, Uganda, Kenya, South Africa, Australia, Mexico, Jamaica, USA, Canada and more. A total of 38 countries so far.

Sharon has a passion to bring healing to the world with the gift of music that God has given her. She is currently filming music videos for every song on her recently released children's album (Children are the reward of life). As well as writing her book, which is her biopic based on her survival of her own murder. She shares her story of triumph in surviving being brutally stabbed multiple times and beaten to death. This is a story of forgiveness, healing, victory, and survival from being a victim of a very violent crime.

When Sharon was 18 years old, she was a victim of violence, sustaining multiple stab wounds and nearly lost her life. She was left for dead, bathing in a pool of her own blood. Only by the grace of God did she survive such an event, inspiring her to share her testimony through public speaking and in song hoping to inspire others to live life to its fullest. Sharon strongly feels that no matter what we go through in life, trust in God and you can make it through and survive.

Sharon pursued an education in the arts. Following her dream of music and performance, went on to study at Mount Royal Conservatory of Music completing a 4-year intense music program. She majored in voice/minored in piano, guitar and music composition and production. When she is not on the road touring, Sharon is a vocal coach and life coach. Sharon is also one of the owners of her own media company "Majesty Creative Pictures". Sharon is a humanitarian, a lover of God, of people and believes strongly in peace, joy and that love never fails.
